Chris Lowry joined McKamie Krueger L.L.P. in February of 2017, coming in with a broad array of litigation and transactional experience. As a 3-year experienced attorney, Mr. Lowry has represented businesses and governmental entities in and out of the courtroom. Mr. Lowry’s litigation experience centers on a heavy motion and pleading practice. He has navigated through all steps of the discovery process, and recently conducted E-discovery involving tens of thousands of documents. He has argued hotly-contested dispositive and discovery motions in Texas State Court, taken and defended numerous depositions, and negotiated settlements in and out of mediation.

Mr. Lowry has negotiated and drafted complex contracts and purchase agreements, and advised clients on a variety of transactional matters. Most recently he helped negotiate a share transfer agreement for the purchase of a multi-million dollar business.
